15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Down the years we have been called to bring people to Christ. If God's word is to reach people, then all who hear it must make it known. The message should be spread around and handed down, but never forced on anyone. We have a choice to accept Christ's message or reject it. Jesus invites that we have a caring heart upholding the Christian faith and Christian values.

Many of us unfortunately clutter our hearts and minds with worldly goods so much so that we forget that the only baggage we can take with us when we leave this world is love, nothing else. Christ asks total commitment from me and you. He wants us to be part of his plan to save the world. We are his hands by the work we do, his tongue by the words we speak and his feet by the places and people we meet.

Help us Lord, encourage us Lord and comfort us now and always.

SYMPATHY

We offer our sincere sympathy to the wife and family of Denis Cavanagh, Greencastle who died during the week and to the family of Bridie Butler-Doherty who died in Preston recently. May they rest in peace.
